WANTING 15-what?

Summer redundant,

Blueness abundant,

—Where is the spot?

Beamy the world, yet a blank all the same,

-Framework which waits for a picture to frame

What of the leafage, what of the flower?

Roses embowering with nought they embower!

Come then, complete incompletion, O comer,

Pant through the blueness, perfect the summer !

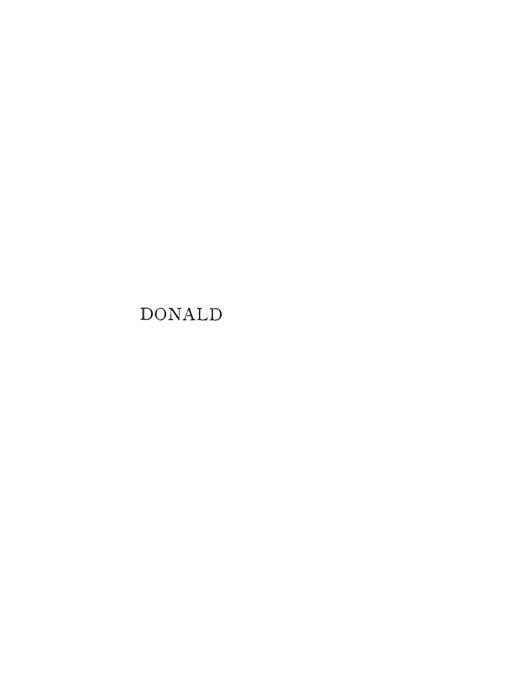

Breathe but one breath

Rose-beauty above,

And all that was death

Grows life, grows love,

Grows love !

DONALD

"WILL you hear my story also,

—Huge Sport, brave adventure in plenty?"

The boys were a band from Oxford,

The oldest of whom was twenty

The bothy we held carouse in

Was bright with fire and candle,

Tale followed tale like a meiry-go-round

Whereof Sport turned the handle

JOCO SERIA

In our eyes and noses—turf-smoke

In our ears a tune from the trivet,

Whence "Boiling, boiling," the kettle sang,

"And ready for fresh Glenlivet"

So, feat capped feat, with a vengeance

Truths, though,—the lads were loyal

"Grouse, five score brace to the bag!

Deer, ten hours' stalk of the Royal!"

Of boasting, not one bit, boys!

Only there seemed to settle

Somehow above your curly heads,

—Plain through the singing kettle,

Palpable through the cloud,

As each new-puffed Havanna

Rewarded the teller's well-told tale,—

This vaunt "To Sport—Hosanna!

DONALD 9

- "Hunt, fish, shoot,
- Would a man fulfil life's duty!

 Not to the bodily frame alone

 Does Sport give strength and beauty,
 - "But character gains in—courage?

 Ay, Sii, and much beside it!

 You don't sport, more's the pity

 You soon would find, if you tried it,
 - "Good sportsman means good fellow,
 Sound-hearted he, to the centre,
 Your mealy-mouthed mild milksops
 —There's where the lot can enter!
 - "There's where the dirt will breed,

 The shabbiness Sport would banish!

 Oh no, Sir, no! In your honoured case

 All such objections vanish

- " T is known how hard you studied
 A Double-First—what, the jigger!
 Give me but half your Latin and Greek,
 I'll never again touch trigger!
- "Still, tastes are tastes, allow me!

 Allow, too, where there's keenness

 For Sport, there's little likelihood

 Of a man's displaying meanness!"
- So, put on my mettle, I interposed

 "Will you hear my story? 'quoth I

 "Never mind how long since it happed,
 I sat, as we sit, in a bothy,
- "With as merry a band of mates, too,
 Undergrads all on a level
 (One s a Bishop, one's gone to the Bench,
 And one's gone—well, to the Devil)

"When, lo, a scratching and tapping !

In hobbled a ghastly visitor

Listen to just what he told us himself

—No need of our playing inquisitor!"

Do you happen to know in Ross-shire

Mount Ben but the name scarce matters

Of the naked fact I am sure enough,

Though I clothe it in rags and tatters

You may recognise Ben by description

Behind him—a moor's immenseness

Up goes the middle mount of a range,

Fringed with its firs in denseness

Rimming the edge, its fir-fringe, mind the Foran edge there is, though narrow, From end to end of the range, a stripe

Of path runs straight as an arrow

And the mountaineer who takes that path
Saves himself miles of journey

He has to plod if he crosses the moor

Through heather, peat and burnie

But a mountaineer he needs must be,

For, look you, right in the middle

Projects bluff Ben—with an end in ich—

Why planted there, is a riddle

Since all Ben's brothers little and big

Keep rank, set shoulder to shoulder,
And only this burliest out must bulge

Till it seems—to the beholder

From down in the gully,—as if Ben's breast,

To a sudden spike diminished

Would signify to the boldest foot

"All further passage finished!"

Yet the mountaineer who sidles on

And on to the very bending,

Discovers, if heart and brain be proof,

No necessary ending

Foot up, foot down, to the turn abrupt

Having trod, he, there arriving,

Finds—what he took for a point was breadth,

A mercy of Nature's contriving

So, he rounds what, when 't is reached, proves straight,

From one side gains the other

The wee path widens—resume the march,

And he foils you, Ben my brother!

But Donald—(that name, I hope, will do)—

I wrong him if I call "foiling"

The tramp of the callant, whistling the while

As blithe as our kettle's boiling

He had dared the danger from boyhood up,

And now,—when perchance was waiting

A lass at the brig below,—twixt mount

And moor would he stand debating?

Moreover this Donald was twenty-five,

A glory of bone and muscle

Did a fiend dispute the right of way,

Donald would try a tussle

On to the narrow and narrow,

A step more, rounding the angular rock,

Reached the front straight as an arrow

Hc stepped it, safe on the ledge he stood,
When—whom found he full-facing?
What tellow in courage and wariness too,
Had scouted ignoble pacing,

And left low safety to timid mates,

And made for the dread dear danger,

And gained the height where—who could guess

He would meet with a rival ranger?

T was a gold-red stag that stood and stared,
Gigantic and magnific,
By the wonder—ay, and the peril—struck
Intelligent and pacific

For a red deer is no fallow deer

Grown cowardly through park-feeding,

He batters you like a thunderbolt

If you brave his haunts unheeding

I doubt he could hardly perform volte-face

Had valour advised discretion

You may walk on a rope, but to turn on a rope

No Blondin makes profession

Yet Donald must turn, would pride permit,

Though pride ill brooks retiring

Each eyed each—mute man, motionless beast—

Less fearing than admiring

These are the moments when quite new sense,

To meet some need as novel,

Springs up in the brain—it inspired resource

—" Nor advance nor retreat but—grovel!"

And slowly, surely, never a whit

Relaxing the steady tension

Of eye-stare which binds man to beast,—

By an inch and inch declension,

DON'11 D 17

Sank Donald sidewise down and down

Lit flat, breast upwards, lying

At his six-foot length, no corpse more still,

""If he cross me! The trick's worth trying?

Minutes were an eternity,

But a new sense was created

In the stags brain too, he resolves! Slow, sure,

With eye-stare unabated,

Feelingly he extends a foot

Which tastes the way ere it touches

Earth's solid and just escapes man's soft,

Nor hold of the same unclutches

Till its fellow foot, light as a feather whisk,

Lands itself no less finely

So a mother removes a fly from the tace

Of her babe asleep supinely

C

And now 't is the haunch and hind foot's turn

—That's hard—can the beast quite raise it?

Yes traversing half the prostrate length

His hoof-tip does not graze it

Just one more lift! But Donald you see

Was sportsman first, man after

A fancy lightened his caution through,

—He well-nigh broke into laughter

"It were nothing short of a miracle '
Unrivalled, unexampled—
All sporting feats with this feat matched
Were down and dead and trampled '

The last of the legs as tenderly

Follows the rest or never

Or now is the time! His knife in reach

And his right-hand loose—how clever!

DON1LD 14

For this can stab up the stomach's soft

Thile the left-hand grasps the pastern.

A rise on the clbow and—now's the time

Or never—this turn's the last turn'

I shall dare to place myself by God

Who scanned—for He does—each teature

Of the face thrown up in appeal to Him

By the agonizing creature

Nay I hear plain words ' Thy gift brings this!

Up he sprang, back he staggered

Over he fell, and with him our friend

- At following game no laggard

Yet he was not dead when they picked next day

From the gully's depth the wreck of him

His fall had been stayed by the stay beneath

Who cushioned and saved the rieck of him

But the rest of his body—why, doctors said,
Whatever could break was broken,
Legs, arms, ribs, all of him looked like a toast
In a tumbler of port-wine soaken

"That your life is left you, thank the stag!"
Said they when—the slow cure ended—
They opened the hospital-door, and thence — Strapped, spliced, main fractures mended,

And minor damage left wisely alone,—

Like an old shoe clouted and cobbled,

Out—what went in a Goliath well-nigh,—

Some half of a David hobbled

"You must ask an alms from house to house

Sell the stag's head for a bracket,

With its grand twelve tines—I'd buy it myself—

And use the skin for a jacket!"

He was wiser, made both head and hide

His win-penny hands and knees on.

Would manage to crawl—poor crab—by the roads

In the misty stalking-season

And if he discovered a bothy like this,

Why, harvest was sure—folks listened

He told his tale to the lovers of Sport

Lips twitched, cheeks glowed—eyes glistened

And when he had come to the close, and spread

His spoils for the gazers' wonder,

With 'Gentlemen, here's the skull of the stag

I was over, thank God, not under ''—

The company broke out in applause

"By Jingo, a lucky cripple!

Have a munch of grouse and a hunk of bread,

And a tug, besides, at our tipple!"

And 'There s my pay for your pluck'" cried This,
'And mine for your jolly story!"

Cried That, while 'T other—but he was drunk—

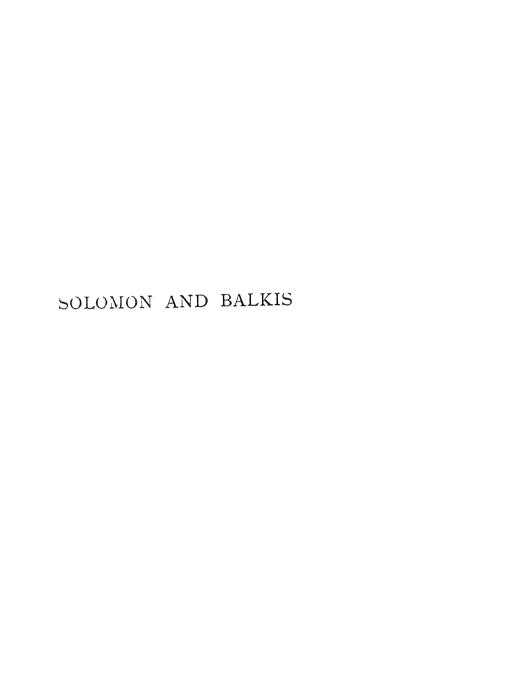

Hicupped "A trump, a Tory!"

I hope I gave twice as much as the rest,

For, as Homer would say, "within grate

Though teeth kept tongue," my whole soul growled

"Rightly rewarded,—Ingrate!"

SOLOMON AND BALKIS

- SOLOMON King of the Jews and the Queen of Sheba, Balkis,
- Talk on the Ivory throne, and we well may conjecture their talk is
- Solely of things sublime why else has she sought Mount Zion,
- Climbed the six golden steps, and sat betwixt lion and lion?

- She proves him with hard questions before she has reached the middle
- He smiling supplies the end, straight solves them riddle by riddle,
- Until, dead-beaten at last, there is left no spirit in her,
- And thus would she close the game whereof she was first beginner
 - 'O wisest thou of the wise, world's marvel and well-nigh monster,
- One crabbed question more to construe or vulgo conster!
- Who are those, of all mankind, a monarch of perfect wisdom
- Should open to, when they knock at spheteron do—that's, his dome?"

- The King makes tait reply "Whom else but the wise his equals
- Should he welcome with heart and voice?—since, king though he be, such weak walls
- Of circumstance—power and pomp—divide souls each from other
- That whose proves kingly in craft I needs must acknowledge my brother
 - Come poet, come painter, come sculptor, come builder
 —whate'er his condition,
 - Is he prime in his art? We are peers! My insight has pierced the partition
 - And hails—for the poem, the picture, the statue, the building—my fellow !
 - Gold's gold though dim in the dust court-polish soon turns it yellow

- "But tell me in turn, O thou to thy weakling sex superior,
- That for knowledge hast travelled so far yet seemest no whit the wearier,—
- Who are those, of all mankind, a queen like thyself, consummate
- In wisdom, should call to her side with an affable 'Up hither come, mate!'"
- "The Good are my mates—how else? Why doubt it? the Queen upbridled
- "Sure even above the Wise,—or in travel my eyes have idled,—
- I see the Good stand plain be they rich, poor, shrewd or simple,
- If Good they only are Permit me to drop my wimple!"

- And, in that bashful jerk of her body, she—peace, thou scoffer '—
- Jostled the King's night-hand stretched courteously help to profter,
- And so disclosed a portent all unaware the Prince eyed
- The Ring which bore the Name—turned outside now from inside!
- The truth-compelling Nume '—and at once "I greet the Wise—Oh,
- Certainly welcome such to my court with this proviso
- The building must be my temple, my person stand forth the statue,
- The picture my portrait prove, and the poem my praise—you cat, you!"

- But Solomon nonplussed? Nay! "Be truthful in turn!' so bade he
- "See the Name, obey its hest!' And at once subjoins the lady
- "Provided the Good are the young, men strong and tall and proper,
- Such servants I straightway enlist,—which means but the blushes stop her
- "Ah, Soul, 'the Monarch sighed, "that wouldst soar yet ever crawlest
- How comes it thou canst discern the greatest yet choose the smallest,
- Unless because heaven is far, where wings find fit expansion,
- While creeping on all-fours suits, suffices the earthly mansion?

- " \Spine to the Best! But which? There are Bests and Bests so many
- With a habitat each for each, earth's Best as much Best as any '
- On Lebanon roots the cedar—soil lotty, yet stony and sandy—
- While hyssop, of worth in its way, on the wall grows low but handy
 - Above mix the Scul spread wing, spurn body and sense beneath her,
- Below she must condescend to plodding unbuoyed by æther
- In hewen I yearn for knowledge account all else in-
- On earth I confess an itch for the praise of fools—that's Nanity

- It is nought, it will go it can never presume above to trouble mc
- But here —why, it toys and tickles and teazes, howe'er I redouble me
- In a doggedest of endeavours to play the indifferent Therefore,
- Suppose we resume discourse? Thou hast travelled thus far but wherefore?
 - Solely for Solomon's sake, to see whom earth styles Sagest?"
- Through her blushes laughed the Queen "For the sake of a Sage? The gay jest!
- On high, be communion with Mind—there, Body concerns not Balkis
- Down here,—do I make too bold? Sage Solomon,— one fool's small kiss!"

CRISTINA AND MONALDESCHI

CRISTINA AND MONILDESCHI

Here is the gallery they trod

Both together, he her god,

She his idol,—iend your rod,

Chamberlain !—ay, there they are—" Quis

Separabit?"—plain those two

Touching words come into view

Apposite for me and you!

Love like ours King Francis, he—
Diane the adored one, she—
Prototypes of you and me
Everywhere is carved her Crescent
With his Salamander-sign—
Flame-fed creature—flame benign
To itself or, if malign,

Only to the meddling curious,

—So, be warned, Sir' Where s my head

How it wanders' What I said

Merely meant—the creature, fed

Thus on flame, was scarce injurious

Save to fools who woke its ire,

Thinking fit to play with fire

T is the Crescent you admire?

I hen, be Diene 'I ll be Francis

Cre-cents change,—true '—wax and wane
Woman-like male hearts retain

Heat nor once warm, cool again

So, we figure—such our chance is—
I as man and you as What?

Fake offence? My Love forgot

He plays woman, I do not?

I—the woman? See my habit

Ask my people! Anyhow,

Be we what we may, one yow

Binds us, male or female Now —

Stand, Sir! Read! 'Quis separabit!

Half a mile of pictured way

Past these palace-walls to-day

Traversed this I came to say

You must needs begin to love me

First I hated, then, at best,

—Have it so !—I acquiesced.

Pure compassion did the rest

From below thus raised above me,

Would you, step by step, descend,

Pity me, become my friend,

Like me, like less, loathe at end 2

That—my own foot kicked away,

Having raised you let it stay,

Serve you for retreating? Nay

Close to me you climbed as close by,

Keep your station, though the peak

Reached proves somewhat bare and bleak

Woman 's strong if man is weak

Keep here, loving me torever '

- . Love's look, gesture, speech, I claim, Act love, lie love, all the same--
- Play as earnest were our game!

Lonely I stood long — t was clever

When you climbed, before men's eyes

Spurned the earth and scaled the skies,

Grined my peak and grisped your prize

Here you stood, then ic men's wonder

Here you the of standing? Kneel!

Cure what giddiness you feel,

This way! Do your senses reel?

Not unlikely! What rolls under?

Yawning death in you abyss

Where the waters whirl and hiss

Round more trightful peaks than this

JOCOSERI 1

Should my buffet dash you thither

But be sage! No watery grave

Needs await you—seeming brave

Kneel on safe, dear timid slave!

You surmised, when you climbed hither

Just as easy were retreat

Should you tire, conceive unmeet

Longer patience at my feet?

Me as standing, you as stooping,—

Who arranged for each the pose?

Lest men think us friends turned foes

Keep the attitude you chose!

Men are used to this same grouping—

I and you like statues seen

You and I, no third between,

Kneel and stand! That makes the scene

Mar it—and one buffet Pirdon!

Needless withith—wise words in waste!

I was prostiation that replaced

Kneeling, then? A proof of taste

Crouch, not kneel, while I mount guard on

Prostrate love—become no waif.

No estray to waves that chaie

Disappointed—love so rife!

Waves that chair? The idlest fance?

Peaks that scare? I think we know Walls enclose our sculpture—so

Grouped, we pose in Fontainebleau

Up now! Wherefore hesitance?

Arm in arm and cheek by cheek,
I augh with me at waves and peak!

Silent still? Why, pictures speak

See, where Juno strikes Ivion,

Primatice speaks plainly! Pooh—
Rather, Florentine Le Rouv!

I've lost head for who is who—

So it swims and wanders! Fie on

What still proves me female! Here,

By the stancase!—for we near

That dark! Gallery of the Deer!

Look me in the eyes once! Steady!

Are you faithful now as erst

On that eve when we two first

Vowed at Avon, blessed and cursed

Faith and talsehood? Pale already?

Forward! Must my hand compel

Entrance—this way? Exit—well,

Somehow, somewhere Who can tell?

What if to the self-same place in

Rustic Ivon, at the door

Of the village church once more,

Where a tombstone paves the floor

By that holy-water basin

You appealed to— 'As, below,

This stone hides its coipse, c'en so

I your secrets hide? What ho!

Fireras, my four ' You Pirest, confess him '

I have judged the culput there

Execute my sentence! Care

For no mail such cowards wear '

Done, Priest? Then, absolve and bless him!

Now-you three, stab thick and fast,

Deep and deeper! Dead at last?

Thanks, friends—Father, thanks! Aghast?

What one word of his confession

Would you tell me, though I luied

With that royal crown abjured

Just because its bars immured

Love too much? Love burst compression

Fled free, finally confessed

All its secrets to that breast

Whence let Avon tell the 1est '

MARY WOLLSTONECRAFT AND FUSELI

MARY WOLLSTONECRAFT AND FUSELI

O BUT is it not hard, Dear?

Mine are the nerves to quake at a mouse If a spider drops I shrink with fear

I should die outright in a haunted house,
While for you—did the danger dared bring help—
From a lion's den I could steal his whelp,
With a serpent round me, stand stock-still,
Go sleep in a churchyard,—so would will Give me the power to dare and do
Valiantly—just for you

Much amiss in the head, Dear,

I toil at a language, tax my brain

Attempting to draw—the scratches here!

I play, play, practise and all in vain
But for you—if my triumph brought you pride,
I would grapple with Greek Plays till I died,
Paint a portrait of you—who can tell?
Work my fingers off for your "Pretty well"
Language and painting and music too,
Easily done—for you!

Strong and fierce in the heart, Dear,

With—more than a will—what seems a power

To pounce on my prey, love outbroke here

In flame devouring and to devour

Such love has laboured its best and worst

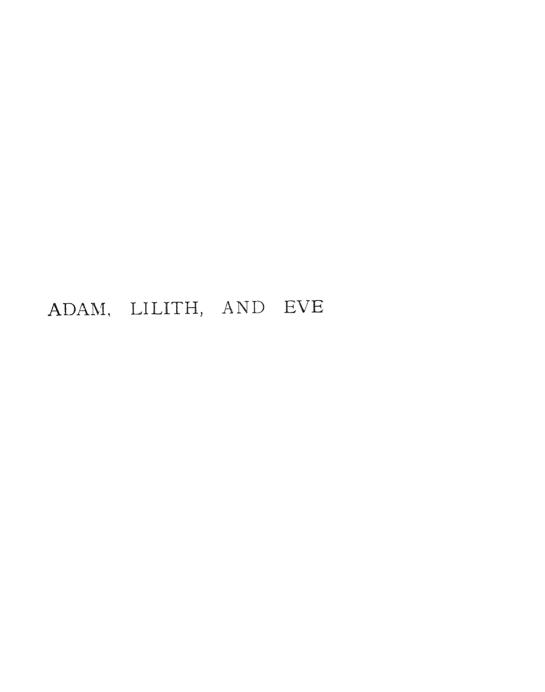

To win me a lover, yet, last as first,

I have not quickened his pulse one beat,

Fixed a moment's fancy, bitter or sweet

Yet the strong fierce heart's love's labour's due,

Utterly lost, was—you!

ADAM, LILITH, AND EVE

One day, it thundered and lightened
Two women, fauly frightened,
Sank to their knees, transformed, transfixed,
At the feet of the man who sat betwint,
And "Mercy!" cried each—"if I tell the truth
Of a passage in my youth!"

Said This "Do you mind the morning

I met your love with scorning?

As the worst of the venom left my lips,

I thought 'If, despite this lie, he strips

The mask from my soul with a kiss—I crawl

His slave,—soul, body and all!'"

Said That "We stood to be mairied,
The priest, or someone, tarried,
'If Paradise-door prove locked?' smiled you
I thought, as I nodded, smiling too,
'Did one, that's away, arrive—nor late
Nor soon should unlock Hell's gate!'

It ceased to lighten and thunder

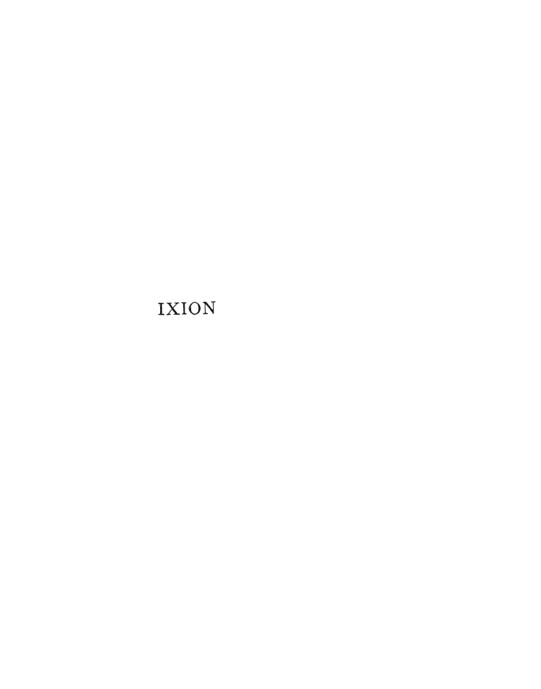

Up started both in wonder,

Looked round and saw that the sky was clear,

Then laughed "Confess you believed us, Dear!"

"I saw through the joke!" the man replied

They re-seated themselves beside

Нісн in the dome, suspended, of Hell, sad triumph, behold us!

Here the revenge of a God, there the amends of a Man

Whirling forever in torment, flesh once mortal, immortal

Made—for a purpose of hate—able to die and revive,

Pays to the uttermost pang, then, newly for payment replenished,

Doles out—old yet young—agonies ever afresh,

Wherice the result above me torment is bridged by a rainbow,—

- Tears, sweat, blood,—each spasm, ghastly once, glorified now
- Wrung, by the rush of the wheel ordained my place of reposing,
 - Off in a sparklike spray,—flesh become vapour thro' pain,—
- Flies the bestowment of Zeus, soul's vaunted bodily vesture,
 - Made that his feats observed gain the approval of Man,—
- Flesh that he fashioned with sense of the earth and the sky and the ocean,
 - Framed should pierce to the star, fitted to pore on the plant,—
- All, for a purpose of hate, re-framed, re-fashioned, re-fitted
 - Till, consummate at length,—lo, the employment of sense!

Pain's mere minister now to the soul, once pledged to her pleasure—

- Soul, if untrammeled by flesh, unapprehensive of pain!
- Body, professed soul's slave, which serving beguiled and betrayed her,
 - Made things false seem true, cheated thro' eye and thro' ear,
- Lured thus heart and brain to believe in the lying reported,—
 - Spurn but the traitrous slave, uttermost atom, away,
- What should obstruct soul's rush on the real, the only apparent?
- Say I have erred,—how else? Was I Ixion or Zeus?
- Foiled by my senses I dreamed , I doubtless awaken in wonder
 - This proves shine, that—shade? Good was that seemed?

- Shall I, with sight thus gained, by torture be taught I was blind once?
 - Sisuphos, teaches thy stone—Tantalos, teaches thy thirst
- Aught which unaided sense, purged pure, less plainly demonstrates?
 - No, for the past was dream now that the dreamers awake,
- Sisuphos scouts low fraud, and to Tantalos treason is folly
 - Ask of myself, whose form melts on the murderous wheel,
- What is the sin which throe and throe prove sin to the sinner!
 - Say the false charge was true,—thus do I explate, say,
- Arrogant thought, word, deed,—mere man who conceited me godlike,

Sat beside Zeiis, my filend—knelt before Heié, my love!

- What were the need but of pitying power to touch and disperse it,
 - Film-work—eye's and ear's—all the distraction of sense?
- How should the soul not see, not hear,—perceive and as plainly
 - Render, in thought, word, deed, back again truth—not a he?
- "Ay, but the pain is to punish thee!" Zeus, once more for a pastime,
 - Play the familiar, the frank! Speak and have speech in leturn!
- I was of Thessaly king, there ruled and a people obeyed me
 - Mane to establish the law, theirs to obey it or die
- Wherefore? Because of the good to the people, because of the honour

- Could I have probed thio' the face to the heart, read plain a repentance,
 - Crime contessed fools' play, virtue ascribed to the wise,
- Had I not stayed the consignment to doom, not dealt the renewed ones
 - Life to retraverse the past, light to retrieve the mis-
- Thus had I done, and thus to have done much more it. behoves thee,
 - Zeus who madest man-flawless or faulty, thy work!
- What if the charge were true, as thou mouthest,—Ixion the cherished
 - Minion of Zeus grew vain, vied with the godships and fell,
- Forfeit thio' arrogance? Stranger † I clothed, with the grace of our human,
 - Inhumanity—gods, natures I likened to ours

Man among men I had borne me till gods forsooth must regard me?

- —Nay, must approve, applaud, claim as a comrade at
- Summoned to enter their circle, I sat—then equal, how other?
 - Love should be absolute love, faith is in fulness or nought
- "I am thy friend, be mine!" smiled Zeus "If Heré attract thee,"
 - Blushed the imperial cheek, "then—as thy heart may suggest !"
- Faith in me sprang to the faith, my love hailed love as its fellow,
 - "Zeus, we are friends—how fast! Heré, my heart for thy heart!"
- Then broke smile into fury of frown, and the thunder of 'Hence, fool!"

- Then thro' the kiss laughed scorn "Limbs or a cloud was to clasp?"
- Then from Olumpos to Erebos, then from the rapture to to ment,
 - Then from the fellow of gods—misery's mate, to the
- —Man henceforth and forever, who lent from the glow of his nature
 - Warmth to the cold, with light coloured the black and the blank
- So did a man conceive of your passion, you passion-protesters!
 - So did he trust, so love—being the truth of your lie!
- You to aspire to be Man! Man made you who vainly would ape him
 - You are the hollowness, he-filling you, falsifies youd
- Even as—witness the emblem, Hell's sad triumph suspended,

Born of my tears, sweat, blood—bursting to vapour above—

- Arching my torment, an iris ghostlike startles the daikness,
 - Cold white—jewelry quenched—justifies, glorifies pain
- Strive, my kind, though strife endure thio' endless obstruction,
 - Stage after stage, each use marred by as certain a fall!
- Baffled forever—yet never so baffled but, e'en in the baffling,
 - When Man's strength proves weak, checked in the body or soul—
- Whatsoever the medium, flesh or essence,—Ixion's
 - Made for a purpose of hate,—clothing the entity Thou,
- —Medium whence that entity strives for the Not-Thou beyond it,
 - Fire elemental, free, frame unencumbered, the All,-

Never so baffled but—when, on the verge of an alien existence,

Heartened to press, by pangs buist to the infinite Pure,

Nothing is reached but the ancient weakness still that arrests strength,

Circumambient still, still the poor human array,

Pride and revenge and hate and ciuelty—all it has burst through,

Thought to escape,—fresh formed, found in the fashion it fled,—

Never so baffled but—when Man pays the puce of endeavour,

Thunderstruck, downthrust, Tartaios-doomed to the wheel,—

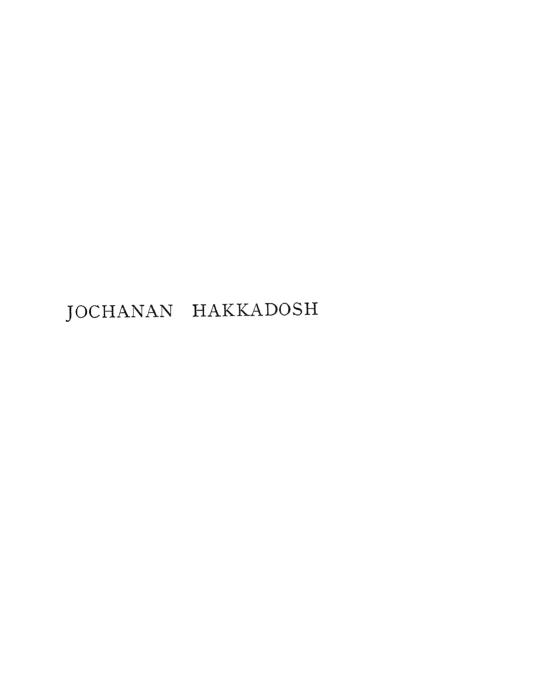

Then, ay, then, from the tear's and sweat and blood of his torment,

E'en from the triumph of Hell, up let him look and rejoice!

IYION 69

What is the influence, high o'er Hell, that turns to a rapture

- Pain—and despair's murk mists blends in a rainbow of hope?
- What is beyond the obstruction, stage by stage tho' it baffle?
- Back must I fall, confess "Ever the weakness I fled"?
- No, for beyond, far, far is a Purity all-unobstructed '
 - Zeus was Zeus—not Man wrecked by his weakness, I whirl
- Out of the wreck I use—past Zeus to the Potency o'er him!
 - I—to have hailed him my friend! I—to have clasped her—my love!
- Pallid birth of my pain,—where light, where light is, aspiring
 - Thither I rise, whilst thou—Zeus, keep the godship and sink!

70CHANAN HAKKADOSH

"This now, this other story makes amends
And justifies our Mishna," quoth the Jew
Aforesaid "Tell it, learnedest of friends!"

A certain morn broke beautiful and blue

O'er Schiphaz city, bringing joy and mirth,

—So had ye deemed, while the reverse was true,

Since one small house there gave a sorrow birth

In such black sort that, to each faithful eye,

Midmid, not morning settled on the earth

How else, when it grew certain thou wouldst die
Oui much-enlightened mastei, Israel's prop, Eximious Jochanan Ben Sabbathai?

Old, yea but, undiminished of a drop,

The vital essence pulsed through heart and biain,

Time left unsickled yet the plenteous crop

On poll and chin and cheek, whereof a skein Handmaids might weave—hairs silk-soft, silver-white, Such as the wool-plant's, none the less in vain

Had Physic striven her best against the spite

Of fell disease the Rabbi must succumb

And, round the couch whereon in piteous plight

He lay a-dying, scholars,—awe-struck, dumb

Throughout the night-watch,—roused themselves and spoke

One to the other "Ere death's touch benun's

"His active sense,—while yet 'neath Reason's yoke
Obedient toils his tongue,—befits we claim
The fruit of long experience, bid this oak

"Shed us an acorn which may, all the same,
Grow to a temple-pillar,—dear that day !—
When Israel's scattered seed finds place and name

"Among the envious nations Lamp us, pray,
Thou the Enlightener! Partest hence in peace?
Hailest without regret—much less, dismay—

"The hour of thine approximate release

From fleshly bondage soul hath found obstruct?

Calmly envisagest the sure increase

"Of knowledge? Eden's tree must hold unplucked Some apple, sure, has never tried thy tooth, Juicy will sapience thou hast sought, not sucked? "Say, does age acquiesce in vanished youth?

Still towers thy purity above—as erst—

Our pleasant follies? Be thy last word—truth!"

The Rabbi groaned , then, grimly, "Last as first The truth speak I- in boyhood who began Striving to live an angel, and, amerced

"For such presumption, die now hardly man What have I proved of life? To live, indeed, That much I learned but here lies Jochanan

"More luckless than stood David when, to speed His fighting with the Philistine, they brought Saul's harness forth whereat, 'Alack, I need

"Armour to arm me, but have never fought
With sword and spear, nor tried to manage shield,
Proving arms' use, as well-trained warric aught

"Only a sling and pebbles can I wield!"

So he while I, contrariwise, 'No trick

Of weapon helpful on the battle-field

"Comes unfamiliar to my theoric

But, bid me put in practice what I know,

Give me a sword—it stings like Moses' stick,

"A serpent I let diop apace' E'en so,
I,—able to comport me at each stage
Of human life as never here below

"Man played his part,—since mine the heritage
Of wisdom carried to that perfect pitch,
Ye rightly praise,—I, therefore, who, thus sage,

"Could sure act man triumphantly, enrich Life's annals with example how I played Lover, Bard Soldier, Statist,—(all of which

- "Parts in presentment failing, cries invade

 The world's ear—'Ah, the Past, the pearl-gift thrown

 To hogs, time's opportunity we made
- "So light of, only recognised when flown!

 Had we been wise!")—in fine, I—wise enough,—

 What profits brings me wisdom never shown
- "Just when its showing would from each rebuff
 Shelter weak virtue, threaten back to bounds
 Encroaching vice, tread smooth each track too rough
- "For youth's unsteady footstep, climb the rounds
 Of life's long ladder, one by slippery one,
 Yet make no stumble? Me hard fate confounds
- "With that same crowd of wailers I outrun

 By promising to teach another cry

 Of more hilarious mood than theirs, the

"I look my last at is insulted by

What cry,—ye ask? Give ear on every side!

Witness yon Lover! 'How entrapped am I!

"Methought, because a virgin's rose-lip vied
With ripe Khubbezleh's, needs must beauty mate
With meekness and discretion in a bride

"Bride she became to me who wail—too late—

Univise I loved!" That 's one cry 'Mind 's my gift'

I might have loaded me with lore, full weight

"Pressed down and running over at each rift
O' the brain-bag where the famished clung and fed

I filed it was what rubbish !—would not sift

"The wheat from chaff, sound grain from musty—shed

Poison abroad as oft as nutriment—

And sighing say but as my fellows said,

"Unwise I learned!" That's two 'In dwarf's-play spent

Was giant's prowess warrior all unversed

In war's right waging, I struck brand, was lent

"For steel's fit service, on mere stone—and cursed Alike the shocked limb and the shivered steel, Seeing too late the blade's true use which erst

"How was I blind to! My cry swells the peal—

Unwise I fought!' That's three But wherefore waste

Breath on the wailings longer? Why reval

"A noot of bitterness whereof the taste

Is noisome to Humanity at large?

First we get Power, but Power absurdly placed

"In Folly's keeping, who resigns her charge
To Wisdom when all Power grows nothing worth
Bones marrowless are mocked with helm and targe

"When, like your Masters, soon below the earth
With worms shall warfare only be Farewell, Children! I die a failure since my birth!"

"Not so!" arose a protest as, pell-mell,

They pattered from his chamber to the street,

Bent on a last resource Our Targums tell

That such resource there is Put case, there meet

The Nine Points of Perfection—rarest chance—

Within some saintly teacher whom the fleet

Years, in their blind implacable advance,
O'ertake before fit teaching born of these Have magnified his scholars' countenance,—

If haply folk compassionating please

To render up—according to his store,

Each one—a portion of the life he sees

Hardly worth saving when 't is set before
Earth's benefit should the Saint, Hakkadosh,
Favoured thereby, attain to full fourscore—

If such contribute (Scoffer, spare thy "Bosh!

A year, a month, a day, an hour—to eke

Life out,—in him away the gift shall wash

That much of ill-spent time recorded, streak

The twilight of the so-assisted sage

With a new sunrise truth, though strang to speak!

Quick to the door-way, then, where youth and age,
All Israel, thronging, waited for the last

News of the loved one "'T is the final stage

' Art's utmost done, the Rabbi's feet tread fast
The way of all flesh!" So announced that apt
Olive-branch Tsaddik "Yet, O Brethren, cast

"No eye to earthward ! Look where heaven has clapped Morning's extinguisher—you ray-shot robe
Of sun-threads—on the constellation mapped

"And mentioned by our Elders,—yea, from Job
Down to Satam,—as figuring forth—what?

Perpend a mystery! Ye call it Dob,

"'. The Bear' I trow, a wiser name than that

Were Aish—'The Bier' a corpse those four stars hold,

Which—we not those Three Daughters weeping at,

"Banoth? I judge so list while I unfold

The reason As in twice twelve hours this Bier
Coes and returns, about the east-cone rolled,

"So may a setting luminary here

Be rescued from extinction, rolled anew

Upon its track of labour, strong and clear,

About the Pole—that Salem, every Jew
Helps to build up when thus he saves some Saint Ordained its architect Ye grasp the clue

"To all ye seek? The Rabbi's lamp-flame faint Sinks—would ye raise it? Lend then life from yours, Spare each his oil-drop! Do I need acquaint

"Ten-fold requital?—urge ye emulate

The fame of those Old Just Ones death procures

"Such praise foi, that 't is now men's sole debate Which of the Ten, who volunteered at Rome To die for glory to our Race, was great

"Beyond his fellows? Was it thou—the comb Of iron carded, flesh from bone, away, While thy lips sputtered thro' their bloody foam

- "Without a stoppage (O brave Akiba ')
 'Hear, Isiael, our Lord God is One ' Or thou, Jischab "—who smiledst, buining, since there lay,
- "Burning along with thee, our Law! I trow,
 Such martyrdom might tax flesh to afford
 While that for which I make petition now,
- "To what amounts it? Youngster, wilt thou hoard

 Each minute of long years thou look'st to spend

 In dalliance with thy spouse? Hast thou so soared,

- "Singer of songs, all out of sight of friend

 And teacher, warbling like a woodland bird,

 There's left no Selah, 'twixt two psalms, to lend
- "Our late-so-tuneful quirist? Thou, avened The fighter born to plant our lion-flag Once more on Zion's mount,—doth, all unheard,
- "My pleading fail to move thee? Toss some rag
 Shall staunch our wound, some minute never missed
 From swordsman's lustihood like thine! Wilt lag
- "In liberal bestowment, show close fist
 When open palm we look for,—thou, wide-known
 For state-craft? whom, 't is said, an if thou list,
- "The Shah himself would seat beside his throne,
 So valued were advice from thee"

 But here
 He stopped short—such a hubbub!
 Not alone

From those addressed, but far as well as nearThe crowd broke into clamour "Mine, mine, mine—
Lop from my life the excrescence, never fear!

"At me thou lookedst, markedst me! Assign

To me that privilege of granting life—

Mine, mine!" Then he "Be patient! I combine

"The needful portions only, wage no strife With Nature's law nor seek to lengthen out The Rabbi's day unduly 'T is the knife

"I stop,—would cut its thread too short About
As much as helps life last the proper term,
The appointed Fourscore,—that I crave, and scout

A too-prolonged existence Let the worm
Change at fit season to the butterfly!

And here a story strikes me, to confirm

"This judgment Of our worthies, none ranks high As Perida who kept the famous school None rivaled him in patience none! For why?

"In lecturing it was his constant rule,
Whatever he expounded, to repeat

—Ay, and keep on repeating, lest some fool

"Should fail to understand him fully—(feat Unparalleled, Uzzean !)—do ye mark ?—
Five hundred times! So might he entrance beat

"For knowledge into howsoever dark

And dense the brain-pan Yet it happed, at close

Of one especial lecture, not one spark

"Of light was found to have illumed the rows

Of pupils round their pedagogue 'What, still

Impenetrable to me? Fhen—here goes!'

- "And for a second time he sets the rill

 Of knowledge running, and five hundred times

 More re-repeats the matter—and gains nul
- "Out broke a voice from heaven 'Thy patience climbs

 Even thus high Choose! Wilt thou, rather, quick

 Ascend to bliss—or, since thy zeal sublimes
- "Such drudgery, will thy back still bear its crick,
 Bent o'er thy class,—thy voice dione spite of drouth,—
 Five hundred years more at thy desk wilt stick?
- "' To heaven with me! was in the good man's mouth, When all his scholars,—cruel-kind were they!— Stopped utterance, from East, West, North and South,
- "Rending the welkin with their shout of 'Nay—
 No heaven as yet for our instructor! Grant
 Five hundred years on earth for Perida!

"And so long did he keep instructing! Want
Our Master no such misery! I but take Three months of life maiital Ministrant

"Be thou of so much, Poet! Bold I make,
Swordsman, with thy frank offer!—and conclude,
Statist, with thine! One year,—ye will not shake

"My purpose to accept no more So rude?

The very boys and girls, forsooth, must press

And proffer their addition? Thanks! The mood

"Is laudable, but I reject, no less,

One month, week, day of life more Leave my gown,

Ye overbold ones! Your life's gift, you guess,

"Were good as any? Rudesby, get thee down!
Set my feet free, or fear my staff! Farewell,
Seniors and saviours, sharers of renown

"With Jochanan henceforward!" Straightway fell Sleep on the sufferer, who awoke in health, Hale everyway, so potent was the spell

O the ree Spring-time! Who is he by stealth Approaches Jochanan?—embowered that sits Under his vine and figtree mid the wealth

Of garden-sights and sounds, since intermits

Never the turtle's coo, nor stays nor stints

The rose her smell In homage that befits

The musing Master, Tsaddik, see, imprints

A kiss on the extended foot, low bends

Forehead to earth, then, all-obsequious, hints

"What if it should be time? A period ends—
That of the Lover's gift—his quarter-year
Of lustihood 'tis just thou make amends,

"Return that loan with usury so, here

Come I, of thy Disciples delegate,

Claiming our lesson from thee Make appear

"Thy profit from experience! Plainly state

How men should Love!" Thus he and to him thus

The Rabbi "Love, ye call it?—nather, Hate!

"What wouldst thou? Is it needful I discuss
Wherefore new sweet wine, poured in bottles caked
With old strong wine's deposit, offers us

"Spoilt liquor we recoil from, thirst-unslaked?

Like earth-smoke from a crevice, influence wound—

Languors and yearnings—not a sense but ached

- "Weighed on by fancied form and feature, sound
 Of silver word and sight of sunny smile
 No beckoning of a flower-branch, no profound
- "Purple of noon-oppression, no light wile
 O' the West wind, but transformed itself till—biref—
 Before me stood the phantasy ye style
- "Youth's love, the joy that shall not come to guet,
 Born to endure, eternal, unimpaned
 By custom the accloyer, time the thief
- "Had Age's hard cold knowledge only spared

 That ignorance of Youth! But now the dream,

 Fresh as from Paradise, alighting fared
- "As fares the pigeon, finding what may seem

 Her nests safe hollow holds a snake inside

 Coiled to enclasp her See, Eve stands supreme

"In youth and beauty! Take her for thy bride! What Youth deemed crystal, Age finds out was dew Morn set a-sparkle, but which noon has dried

"While Youth bent gazing at its red and blue Supposed perennial,—never dreamed the sun Which kindled the display would quench it too

"Graces of shape and colour—everyone
With its appointed period of decay
When ripe to purpose! 'Still, these dead and done,

"Survives the woman-nature—the soft sway
Of undefinable omnipotence
O'er our strong male-stuff, we of Adam's clay'

"Ay, if my physics taught not why and whence
The attraction! Am I like the simple steer
Who, from his pasture lured inside the fence

- "Where yoke and goad await him, holds that mere Kindliness prompts extension of the hand Hollowed for barley, which drew near and near
- "His nose—in proof that, of the horned band,
 The faimer best affected him? Beside,
 Steer, long since calf hood, got to understand
- "Farmers a many in the world so wide

 Were ready with a handful just as choice

 Or choicer—maize and cummin, treats untried
- "Shall I wed wife, and all my days rejoice

 I gained the peacock? 'Las me, round I look,

 And lo—' With me thou wouldst have blamed no voice
- "Like hers that daily deafens like a rook

 I am the phœnix ''—'I, the lark, the dove,

 —The owl,' for aught knows he who blindly took

- "Peacock for partner, while the vale, the grove,

 The plain held bird-mates in abundance There!

 Youth, try fresh capture! Age has found out Love
 - "Long ago Wai seems better worth man's care
 But leave me! Disappointment finds a balm
 Haply in slumber" "This first step o' the stair
 - "To knowledge fails me, but the victor's palm Lies on the next to tempt him overleap A stumbling-block experience Gather calm,
 - "Thou excellence of Judah, cured by sleep Which ushers in the Warnior, to replace

 The Lover! At due season I shall reap
 - "Fruit of my planting!" So, with lengthened face,
 Departed Tsaddik and three moons more waved
 And waned, and not until the summer-space

Waned likewise, any second visit taxed

The Rabbi's patience But at three months' end,

Behold, supine beneath a rock, relaxed

The sage lay musing till the noon should spend Its aldour Up comes Tsaddik, who but he, With "Master, may I warn thee, not offend,

"That time comes round again? We look to see

Sprout from the old branch—not the youngling twig—

But fruit of sycamine deliver me,

"To share among my fellows, some plump fig,
Juicy as seedy! That same man of war,
Who, with a scantling of his store, made big

"Thy starveling nature, caused thee, safe from scar,
To share his gains by long acquaintanceship
With turn and bruise and all the knocks that are

- "Of battle dowry therefore, loose thy lip,

 Explain the good of battle! Since thou know'st,

 Let us know likewise! Fast the moments slip,
- "More need that we improve them!"—"Ay, we boast, We warriors in our youth, that with the sword Man goes the swiftliest to the uttermost—
- "Takes the straight way thro' lands yet unexplored
 To absolute Right and Good,—may so obtain
 God's glory and man's weal too long ignored,
- "Too late attained by preachments all in vain,—
 The passive process Knots get tangled worse
 By toying with does cut cord close again?
- "Moreover there is blessing in the curse

 Peace-praisers call war What so sure evolves

 All the capacities of soul, proves nurse

- "Of that self-sacrifice in men which solves

 The riddle—Wherein differs Man from beast?

 Foxes boast cleverness and courage wolves
- "Nowhere but in mankind is found the least

 Touch of an impulse 'To our fellows—good
 I' the highest !—not diminished but increased
- "By the condition plainly understood

 —Such good shall be attained at price of hurt

 I'the highest to ourselves!' Fine sparks, that brood
- "Confusedly in Man, 't is war bids spurt

 Forth into flame—as fares the meteor-mass,

 Whereof no particle but holds inert
- "Some seed of light and heat, however crass

 The enclosure, yet avails not to discharge

 Its radiant birth before there come to pass

- "Some push external,—strong to set at large
 Those dormant fire-seeds, whirl them in a trice Through heaven and light up earth from marge to marge
- "Since force by motion makes—what erst was ice—Crash into fervency and so expire,
 Because some Djinn has hit on a device
- "For proving the full piettiness of fire!

 Ay, thus we prattle—young—but old—why, first,

 Where 's that same Right and Good—(the wise enquire)—
- "So absolute, it warrants the outburst
 Of blood, tears, all war's woeful consequence,
 That comes of the fine flaring? Which plague cursed

- "The more your benefitted Man—offence,
 Or what suppressed the offender? Say it did—
 Show us the evil cured by violence,
- "Submission cures not also! Lift the lid From the maturing crucible, we find Its slow sure coaxing-out of virtue, hid
- "In that same meteor-mass, hath uncombined
 Those particles and yielding for result
 Gold, not mere flame, by so much leaves behind
- "The heroic product E'en the simple cult
 Of Edom's children wisely bids them turn
 Cheek to the smiter with 'Sic Jesus vult'
- "Say there's a tyrant by whose death we earn Freedom, and justify a war to wage Good!—were we only able to discern

"Exactly how to reach and catch and cage

Him only and no innocent beside!

Whereas the folk whereon war wreaks its rage

"—How shared they his ill-doing 'Far and wide
The victims of our waifare strew the plain,
Ten thousand dead, whereof not one but died

"In faith that vassals owed their suzerain

Life therefore each paid tribute,—honest soul,—

To that same Right and Good ourselves are fain

"To claim exclusively our end From bole (Since ye accept in me a sycamine)

Pluck, eat, digest a fable—yea, the sole

"Fig I afford you! 'Dost thou dwarf my vine?' (50 did a certain husbandman address
The tree which faced his field) 'Receive condign

- "Punishment, prompt removal by the stress
 Of axe I forthwith lay unto thy root!"
 Long did he hack and hew, the root no less
- "As long defied him, for its tough strings shoot
 As deep down as the boughs above aspire
 All that he did was—shake to the tree's foot
- "Leafage and fruitage, things we most require
 For shadow and refreshment—which good deed
 Thoroughly done, behold the ave-haft tries
- "His hand, and he desisting leaves unfreed

 The vine he hacked and hewed for Comes a first,

 One natural night's-work, and there 's little need
- "Of hacking, hewing lo, the tree's a ghost!

 Perished it starves, black death from topmost bough

 To faithest reaching fibre! Shall I boast

- "My rough work,—warfare,—helped more? Loving,
- That, by comparison, seems wiser, since
 The loving fool was able to avow
 - "He could effect his purpose, just evince
 Love's willingness,—once ware of what she lacked,
 His loved one,—to go work for that, nor wirce
 - 'At self-expenditure he neither hacked
 Nor hewed, but when the lady of his field
 Required defence because the sun attacked,
 - "He, failing to obtain a fitter shield,
 Would interpose his body, and so blaze,
 Blest in the burning Ah, were mine to wield
 - "The intellectual weapon—poet-lays,—

 How preferably had I sung one song

 Which but my sadness sinks me go your ways

"I sleep out disappointment" "Come along,

Never lose heart! There's still as much again

"Done by its earlier moiety—explain

Wherefore, who may! The Poet's mood comes next

Was he not wishful the poetic vein

"Should pulse within him? Jochanan, thou reck'st
Little of what a generous flood shall soon
Float thy clogged spirit free and unperplexed

"Above dry dubitation! Song's the boon
Shall make amends for my untoward mistake
That Joshua-like thou couldst bid sun and moon—

"Fighter and Lover,—which for most men make All they descry in heaven,—stand both stock-still
And lend assistance Poet shalt thou wake!"

Autumn brings Tsaddik "Ay, there speeds the rill Loaded with leaves a scowling sky, beside

The wind makes olive trees up yonder hill

"Whiten and shudder—symptoms far and wide $\label{eq:condition} \mbox{Of gleaning-time's approach , and glean good store } \mbox{May I presume to trust we shall, thou tried}$

"And ripe experimenter! Three months more Have ministered to growth of Song that graft Into thy sterile stock has found at core

"Moisture, I warrant, hitherto unquaffed By boughs, however florid, wanting sap Of prose-experience which provides the draught

"Mere song-sprouts, wanting, wither vain we tap
A youngling stem all green and immature
Experience must secrete the stuff, our hap

"Will be to quench Man's thirst with, glad and sure
That fancy wells up through corrective fact
Wanting which test of truth, though flowers allure

"The goodman's eye with promise, soon the pact
Is broken, and 't is flowers,—mere words,—he finds
When things,—that 's fruit,—he looked for Well, once cracked

"The nut, how glad my tooth the kernel grinds!

Song may henceforth boast substance! Therefore, hail

Proser and poet, perfect in both kinds !

"Thou from whose eye hath dropped the envious scale
Which hides the truth of things and substitutes
Deceptive show, unaided optics fail

- "To transpierce,—hast entrusted to the lute's Soft but sure guardianship some unrevealed Secret shall lift mankind above the brutes
- "As only knowledge can?" "A fount unsealed" (Sighed Jochanan) "should seek the heaven in leaps To die in dew-gems—not find death, congealed
- "By contact with the cavern's nether deeps,
 Earth's secretest foundation where, enswathed
 In dark and fear, primæval mystery sleeps—
- "Petrific fount wherein my fancies bathed

 And straight turned ice My dreams of good and fair
 In soaring upwards had dissolved, unscathed
- "By any influence of the kindly air,
 Singing, as each took flight, 'The Future—that's Our destination, mists turn rainbows there

"Which sink to fog, confounded in the flats
O' the Present! Day 's the song-time for the lark, Night for her music boasts but owls and bats
"And what's the Past but night—the deep and dark
Ice-spring I speak of, corpse-thicked with its drowned
Dead fancies which no sooner touched the mark

"They aimed at—fact—than all at once they found
Their film-wings freeze, henceforth unfit to reach
And roll in æther, revèl—tobed and crowned

"As truths confirmed by falsehood all and each—Sovereign and absolute and ultimate!

Up with them, skyward, Youth, ere Age impeach

"Thy least of promises to re-instate

Adam in Eden! Sing on, ever sing,

Chirp till thou burst!—the fool cicada's fate,

- "Who holds that after Summer next comes Spring,
 Than Summer's self sun-warmed, spice-scented more Fighting was better! There, no fancy-fling
- "Pitches you past the point was reached of yore By Sampsons, Abners, Joabs, Judases, The mighty men of valour who, before
- "Our little day, did wonders none profess To doubt were fable and not fact, so trust By fancy-flights to emulate much less
- "Were I a Statesman, now! Why, that were just To pinnacle my soul, mankind above,

 A-top the universe no vulgar lust
- "To gratify—fame, greed, at this remove Looked down upon so far—or over-looked
 So largely, rather—that mine eye should rove

"World-wide and lummage earth, the many-nooked,
Yet find no unit of the human flock Caught straying but straight comes back hooked and crooked

"By the strong shepherd who, from out his stock
Of aids proceeds to treat each ailing fleece,
Here stimulate to growth, curtail and dock

"There, baldness or excrescence,—that, with grease,
This, with up-grubbing of the bristly patch
Born of the tick-bite How supreme a peace

"Steals o'er the Statist,—while, in wit, a match
For shrewd Ahithophel, in wisdom well,
His name escape me—somebody, at watch

"And ward, the fellow of Ahithophel
In guidance of the Chosen!"—at which word
Eyes closed and fast asleep the Rabbi fell

"Cold weather!" shivered Tsaddik "Yet the hoard Of the sagacious ant shows garnered grain,

Ever abundant most when fields afford

"Least pasture, and alike disgrace the plain
Tall tree and lowly shrub 'T is so with us
Mortals our age stores wealth ye seek in vain

"While busy youth culls just what we discuss
At leisure in the last days—and the last Truly are these for Jochanan, whom thus

"I make one more appeal to! Thine amassed Experience, now or never, let escape Some portion of! For I perceive aghast "The end approaches, while they jeer and jape,

These sons of Shimer 'Justify your boast!

What have ye gained from Death by twelve months' rape?'

"Statesman, what cure hast thou for—least and most—Popular grievances? What nostrum, say,
Will make the Rich and Poor, expertly dosed,

"Forget disparity, bid each go gay
That, with his bauble,—with his builden, this?
Propose an alkahest shall melt away

"Men's lacquer, show by prompt analysis
Which is the metal, which the make-believe,
So that no longer brass shall find, gold miss

"Comage and currency? Make haste, retrieve The precious moments, Master!" Whereunto There snarls an "Ever laughing in thy sleeve,

"Pert Tsaddik? Youth indeed sees plain a clue
To guide man where life's wood is intricate How shall he fail to thrid its'thickest through

"When every oak-trunk takes the eye? Elate

He goes from bole to brushwood, plunging finds—

Smothered in briars—that the small 's the great!

"All men are men I would all minds were minds!

Whereas 't is just the many's mindless mass

That most needs helping labourers and hinds

"We legislate for—not the cultured class
Which law-makes for itself nor needs the whip
And bridle,—proper help for mule and ass,

- "Did the brutes know! In vain our statesmanship Strives at contenting the rough multitude
 Still the ox cries 'T is me thou shouldst equip
- "With equine trappings 1' or, in humbler mood,
- 'Cribful of corn for me! and, as for work—Adequate rumination o'er my food!'
- "Better remain a Poet! Needs it irk

 Such an one if light, kindled in his sphere,
 Fail to transfuse the Mizraim cold and murk
- "Round about Goshen? Though light disappear,
 Shut inside,—temporary ignorance
 Got outside of, lo, light emerging clear
- "Shows each astonished starer the expanse

 Of heaven made bright with knowledge! That's the way,

 The only way—I see it at a glance—

"To legislate for earth! As poet Stay!

What is I would that were it I had been

O sudden change, as if my arid clay

"Buist into bloom! "A change indeed, I ween,
And change the last!" sighed Tsaddik as he kissed

The closing eyelids "Just as those seiene

"Princes of Night applied me! Our æquist
Of life is spent, since coineis only four Hath Aisch, and each in turn was made desist

"In passage round the Pole (O Mishna's lore— Little it profits here!) by strenuous tug Of friends who eked out thus to full iouiscore "The Rabbi's years I see each shoulder shrug! What have we gained? Away the Bier may roll! To-morrow, when the Master's grave is dug,

"In with his body I may pitch the scroll
I hoped to glorify with, text and gloss,
My Science of Man's Life one blank 's the whole!

"Love, war, song, statesmanship—no gain, all loss,
The stars, bestowment! We on our return
To-morrow merely find—not gold but dross,

"The body not the soul Come, friends, we learn

At least thus much by our experiment—

That—that well, find what, whom it may concern!"

But next day through the city rumous went

Of a new persecution, so, they fled

All Israel, each man,—this time,—from his tent,

Tsaddik among the foremost When, the dread Subsiding, Israel ventured back again Some three months after, to the cave they sped

Where lay the Sage,— a reverential train !

Tsaddik first enters "What is this I view?

The Rabbi still alive? No stars remain

"Of Aisch to stop within their courses True,
I mind me, certain gamesome boys must urge
Their offerings on me can it be—one threw

"Life at him and it stuck? There needs the scourge
To teach that uichin manners! Prithee, giant Forgiveness if we pretermit thy dirge?

"Just to explain no friend was ministrant,

This time, of life to thee! Some jackanapes,

I gather, has presumed to foist his scant

"Scurvy unripe existence—wilding grapes Grass-green and sorrel-sour—on that grand wine, Mighty as mellow, which my fancy shapes

"May fitly image forth this life of thine

Fed on the last low fattering lees—condensed
Elixii, no milk-mildness of the vine!

"Rightly with Tsaddik wert thou now incensed Had he been witting of the mischief wrought When, for elixir, verjuice he dispensed!"

And slowly woke,—like Shushan's flower besought
By over-curious handling to unloose
The curtained secrecy wherein she thought

Her captive bee, mid stole of sweets to choose, Would loll in gold, pavilioned lie unteazed, Sucking on, sated never,—whose, O whose

Might seem that countenance, uplift, all eased Of old distraction and bewilderment,

Absurdly happy? "How ye have appeased

"The strife within me, bred this whole content,
This utter acquiescence in my past Present and future life,—by whom was lent

"The power to work this miracle at last,—

Exceeds my guess Though—ignorance confirmed

By knowledge sounds like paradox, I cast

"Vainly about to tell you—fither termed—
This calm struck by encountering opposites,
Each nullifying either! Henceforth wormed

"From out my heart is every snake that bites

The dove that else would brood there doubt, which kills

With hiss of 'What if sorrows end delights?'

"Fear which stings ease with 'Work the Master wills!

Experi nce which coils round and strangles quick

Each hope with 'Ask the Past if hoping skills

"To work accomplishment, or proves a trick
Wiling the to endeavour! Strive, fool, stop
Nowise, so live, so die—that 's law! why kick

"Against the pricks?" All out-wormed! Slumber, drop

Thy films once more and veil the bliss within!

Experience strangle hope? Hope waves a-top

"Her wings triumphant! Come what will, I win,
Whoever loses! Every dream's assured
Of soberest fulfilment There's no sin

"Except in doubting that the light, which lured
The unwary into darkness, did no wrong
Had I but marched on bold, nor paused immured

"By mists I should have pressed thro', passed along My way henceforth rejoicing! Not the boy's Passionate impulse he conceits so strong,

"Which, at first touch, truth, bubble-like, destroys,-Not the man's slow conviction 'Vanity
Of vanities—alike my griefs and joys!'

"Ice!—thawed (look up) each bild, each insect by—(Look round) by all the plants that break in bloom, (Look down) by every dead friend's memory

"That smiles 'Am I the dust within my tomb?'
Not either, but both these—amalgam lare—
Mix in a product, not from Nature's womb,

"But stuff which He the Operant—who shall dare
Describe His operation?—strikes alive
And thaumaturgic I nor know nor care

"How from this tohu-bohu—hopes which dive,

And fears which soar—faith, ruined through and through

By doubt, and doubt, faith treads to dust—revive

"In some surprising sort,—as see, they do!—

Not merely foes no longer but fast friends—

What does it mean unless—O strange and new

"Discovery!—this life proves a wine-press—blends
Evil and good, both fruits of Paradise,
Into a novely drink which—who intends

- "To quaff, must bear a brain for ecstasies

 Attempered, not this all-inadequate

 Organ which, quivering within me, dies
- "—Nay, lives!—what, how,—too soon, or else too late—
- I \tilde{was} —I am " ("He babbleth '" Tsaddık mused)
- "O Thou Almighty who canst re-instate
- "Truths in their primal clarity, confused
 By man's perception, which is man's and made
 To suit his service,—how, once disabused
- "Of reason which sees light half shine half shade, Because of flesh, the medium that adjusts Purity to his visuals, both an aid
- "And hindrance,—how to eyes earth's air encrusts,
 When purged and perfect to receive truth's beam
 Pouring itself on the new sense it trusts

"With all its plenitude of power,—how seem
Then, the intricacies of shade and shine, Oppugnant natures—Right and Wrong, we deem

"Irreconcilable? O eyes of mine,
Freed now of imperfection, ye avail
To see the whole sight, nor may uncombine

- "Henceforth what, erst divided, caused you quail—
 So huge the chasm between the false and true,

 The dream and the reality! All hail,
 - "Day of my soul's deliverance—day the new,

 The never-ending! What though every shape
 Whereon I wreaked my yearning to pursue
 - "Even to success each semblance of escape
 From my can bounded self to some all-fair
 All-wise external fancy, proved a rape

"Like that old giant's, feigned of fools—on air,

Not solid flesh? How otherwise? To love—

That lesson was to learn not here—but there—

"On earth, not here! 'T is there we learn,—there prove

Our parts upon the stuff we needs must spoil, Striving at mastery, there bend above

"The spoiled clay potsherds, many a year of toil Attests the potter tried his hand upon,

Till sudden he arose, wiped free from soil a

"His hand, cried 'So much for attempt—anon Performance! Taught to mould the living vase, What matter the cracked pitchers dead and gone?

"Could I impart and could thy mind embrace

The secret, Tsaddik!" "Secret none to me!"

Quoth Tsaddik, as the glory on the face

Of Jochanan was quenched "The truth I see

Of what that excellence of Judah wrote,

Doughty Halaphta This a case must be

Wherein, though the last breath have passed the throat,

So that 'The man is dead' we may pronounce, Yet is the Ruach—(thus do we denote

"The imparted Spirit)—in no haste to bounce
From its entrusted Body,—some three days
Lingers er it relinquish to the pounce

"Of hawk-clawed Death his victim Further says Halaphta, 'Instances have been, and yet

Again may be, when saints, whose earthly ways

"Tend to perfection, very nearly get

To heaven while still on earth—and, as a fine

Interval shows where waters pure have met

"Waves brackish, in a mixture, sweet with brine,
That 's neither sea noi river but a taste
Of both—so meet the earthly and divine

"And each is either Thus I hold him graced-Dying on earth, half inside and half out, Wholly in heaven, who knows? My mind embraced

"Thy secret, Jochanan, how dare I doubt?

Follow thy Ruach, let earth, all it can,

Keep of the leavings!" Thus was brought about

The sepulture of Rabbi Jochanan

Thou hast him,—sinner-saint, live-dead, boy-man,— Schiphaz, on Bendimir, in Farzistan

Note This story can have no better authority than that of the treatise, existing dispersedly in fragments of Rabbinical writing, בים ברים, from which I might have helped myself more liberally. Thus, instead of the simple reference to "Moses' stick," but what if I make amends by attempting three illustrations, when some thirty might be composed on the same subject, equally justifying that pithy proverb

Moses the Meek was thirty cubits high,

The staff he strode with—thirty cubits long,
And when he leapt, so muscular and strong
Was Moses that his leaping neared the sky
By thirty cubits more—we leain thereby
He reached full ninety cubits—am I wrong?—
When, in a fight slurred o'er by sacred song,
With staff out-stretched he took a leap to try
The just dimensions of the giant Og
And yet he barely touched—this marvel lacked Posterity to crown earth's catalogue
Of marvels—barely touched—to be exact—
The giant's ancle-bone, remained a frog
That fain would match an ox in stature—fact!

II

And this same fact has met with unbelief!

How saith a certain traveller? "Young, I chanced To come upon an object—if thou can'st,

Guess me its name and nature! 'T was, in bilef,

White, hard, round, hollow, of such length, in chief,

—And this is what especially enhanced

My wonder—that it seemed, as I advanced,

Never to end Bind up within thy sheaf

Of marvels, this—Posterity! I walked

From end to end,—four hours wilked I, who go

A goodly pace,—and found—I have not balked

Thine expectation, Stranger? Ay or No?—

'T was but Og's thigh bone, all the while, I stalked

Alongside of respect to Moses, though!

ш

Og's thigh bone—if ye deem its measure strange,
Myself can witness to much length of shank
Even in birds Upon a water's bank
Once halting, I was minded to exchange
Noon heat for cool Quoth I "On many a grange
I have seen storks perch—legs both long and lank
Yon stork's must touch the bottom of this tank,

Since on its top doth wet no plume delange

Of the smooth bleast I'll bathe there!" "Do not so!"

Warned me a voice from heaven "A min let drop

His axe into that shallow invulet—

As thou accountest—seventy years ago

It fell and fell and still without a stop

Keeps falling, nor has reached the bottom yet"

NEVER THE TIME AND THE PLACE

NEVER THE TIME AND THE PLACE

NEVER the time and the place

And the loved one all together !

This path—how soft to pace !

This May-what magic weather !

Where is the loved one's face?

In a dream that loved one's face meets mine,

But the house is narrow, the place is bleak

Where, outside, rain and wind combine

With a furtive ear, if I strive to speak,

With a hostile eye at my flushing cheek,

With a malice that marks each word, each sign!
O enemy sly and serpentine,

Uncoil thee from the waking man !

Do I hold the Past

Thus firm and fast

-I and she!

Thus firm and fast

Yet doubt if the Future hold I can?

This path so soft to pace shall lead

Thro' the magic of May to herself indeed!

Or narrow if needs the house must be,

Outside are the storms and strangers we—

Oh, close, safe, warm sleep I and she,

PAMBO

Suppose that we part (work done, comes play)

With a grave tale told in crambo

—As our hearty sires were wont to say—

Whereof the hero is Pambo?

Do you happen to know who Pambo was?

Nor I—but this much have heard of him

He entered one day a college-class,

And asked—was it so absurd of him?—

"May Pambo learn wisdom ere practise it?

In wisdom I fain would ground me

Since wisdom is centred in Holy Writ,

Some psalm to the purpose expound me!"

"That psalm," the Professor smiled, "shall be Untroubled by doubt which dirtieth
Pellucid streams when an ass like thee
Would drink there—the Nine-and-thirtieth

"Verse First I said I will look to my ways

That I with my tongue offend not

How now? Why stare? Art struck in amaze?

Stop, stay! The smooth line hath an end knot!

"He's gone !—disgusted my text should prove

Too easy to need explaining?

Had he waited, the blockhead might find I move

To matter that pays remaining!"

Long years went by, when—"Ha, who's this?

Do I come on the restif scholar

I had driven to Wisdom's goal, I wis,

But that he slipped the collar?

"What? Arms crossed, brow bent, thought-

A student indeed! Why scruple

To own that the lesson proposed him first

Scarce suited so apt a pupil?

"Come back! From the beggaily elements

To a more recondite issue

We pass till we reach, at all events,

Some point that may puzzle

Why 'pish'
you?"

From the ground looked piteous up the head
"Daily and nightly, Mastei,
Your pupil plods thio' that text you read,
Yet gets on never the faster

"At the self-same stand,—now old, then young!

I will look to my ways—were doing

As easy as saying!—that I with my tongue

Offend not—and 'scape pooh-poohing

"From sage and simple, doctor and dunce?

Ah nowise! Still doubts so mudiy

The stream I would drink at once,—but once!

That—thus I resume my study!

Brother, brother, I share the blame,

Areades sumus ambo!

Darkling, I keep my sumise-um,

Lack not the critic's flainbe in

'nd look to my ways, yet, much the same

Offend with my tongue-like Pumbo!
